II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

WRONGFUL Dismissal from workplace.

I was released because an assistant supervisor accused me of hitting him with a company vehicle. It was proven by a witness, that that incident never happened. I cannot secure a new job with that "stain" on my name.

EEOC issued a Notice of right to sue. My lawyer signed a tolling agreement with the opposing lawyer to extend the date from August 12, 2021 to September 30, 2021. On 21. of September my lawyer send me an email stating his refusal to sue WSSC Water on my behalf. Since this is such short notice I am filing to extend the right to sue. I am trying to find another lawyer.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages. For any request for injunctive relief, explain why monetary damages at a later time would not adequately compensate you for the injuries you sustained, are sustaining, or will sustain as a result of the events described above, or why such compensation could not be measured.
